Beautiful four-bedroom house in the sought-after Bellavista area.~This property features a spacious living room with marble floors leading to the large kitchen and the sunny rear terrace.~The living room is equipped with a domotic lighting system, marble floors, and is very bright with two different areas within the living room.~On the upper floor are four double bedrooms, currently used as the master suite, a dressing room, and two home offices. There is an enclosed balcony at the rear and an open one at the front.~The bathrooms are finished with subway tiles and open showers with glass partitions.~The garage has easy access and enough space for two cars, as well as a large workshop. The entrance provides covered parking for another car and uncovered parking for a fourth.
