In the heart of Maspalomas, in the quiet and green area of Campo Internacional, lies this charming and spacious semi-detached bungalow on two floors. The property is part of a very well-kept and established complex with a total of 43 units, without any connection to a tour operator, where the community is mainly composed of permanent residents. The house has three bedrooms and two bathrooms and is decorated in a modern and elegant style. The furnishings are both functional and sophisticated, and the property is sold fully equipped, allowing you to move in and start enjoying it straight away. For extra comfort, air conditioning is also installed.~~The outdoor areas are one of the property?s greatest assets.
