Presenting a spacious apartment with two large double bedrooms that stands out for its tranquillity and for being in an exclusive complex of only 18 units. The property is well located at the entrance of a pedestrian street very close to the beach and is situated on the first floor.~~The Luquillo complex is strategically located just a few steps away from the beach and its central location means that all services are close to the property. For this reason, it can be said that this apartment is located in one of the most select and sought after areas of Puerto Rico.
