This well-maintained two-storey terraced house offers a home where comfort, tranquility, and quality of life take center stage. The property is located on the third floor of block C, the quietest block in the complex and the one offering the best views, with a truly privileged position within the building. Its excellent location allows you to enjoy one of the largest terraces on the entire floor, a space that has been carefully renovated to make the most of it.~~The property features two spacious bedrooms and two full bathrooms, making it ideal both as a permanent residence and as a comfortable and practical holiday home. The kitchen is functional and designed for everyday use, and the property is sold fully furnished, ready to move into and start enjoying from day one.
