This charming bungalow in the centre of Arguineguín immediately conveys the feeling of a simple and carefree life under the sun. Located in the quiet yet central area of Los Canarios I—a well-established and highly sought-after community—it offers a harmonious atmosphere where daily life flows at a pleasant pace, with everything you need just a few steps away. Despite its well-utilised 35 square metres, the property surprises with its spacious feel and functional design. The integrated bed, which can easily be folded against the wall, adds flexibility and allows the space to adapt to different needs throughout the day. The generous ceiling height enhances the feeling of brightness and space, creating a cosy and surprisingly spacious home.
