This two-bedroom apartment is located in the Demelza Beach complex in Playa del Cura. The property has been renovated and stands out for its corner position, a feature that allows it to enjoy more outdoor space than most apartments within the complex. In addition to the main terrace, it benefits from a private terrace next to the entrance and an exclusive rooftop terrace, ideal as a sunbathing area or outdoor relaxation space. Thanks to these additional outdoor areas, part of the main terrace has been enclosed to increase the interior living space, creating a larger and more functional living area. The property comprises two bedrooms, one bathroom and a kitchen in excellent condition. Its layout encourages natural light throughout the home and it is equipped with air conditioning.
