Located in the Miramar building, just 30 metres from Mogán beach, this magnificent corner penthouse is a unique property due to its location, spaciousness and quality of construction. The building is very well maintained and has a lift. The property also includes a private parking space and storage room, providing great comfort in one of the most sought-after areas in the south of Gran Canaria. The property stands out for its spectacular L-shaped terrace, with direct access from the living room and both bedrooms. An ideal space to enjoy Mogán's climate all year round, with side views of the sea, the park and the mountains. The terrace has awnings and an outdoor barbecue area.
