Investment opportunity in a prime location in the heart of Playa del Inglés, just a few metres from the beach taxi rank and surrounded by a wide range of tourist services, shops, restaurants and leisure areas. The property is located on the semi-basement level of a complex, yet benefits from its own independent street access, providing convenience, functionality and excellent accessibility. In addition, the premises feature large windows overlooking the pool area, allowing for abundant natural light and ventilation throughout the space. Currently fitted out as a bar, the property offers 168 m² of open-plan space, providing outstanding flexibility for a variety of commercial concepts and business projects.
