Located in one of the most highly regarded areas in the south of Gran Canaria, this apartment is situated in the Jacaranda complex in Puerto Rico. Positioned on the ground floor and facing east, it benefits from the pleasant morning sunshine and a peaceful setting, with views of the communal garden and the sea. The property is in good overall condition and features a recently renovated kitchen and bathroom. It has also been recently painted to improve its presentation and is sold semi-furnished. The Jacaranda complex is currently undergoing improvements to its communal areas, which will help to renew and enhance the surroundings of the complex.
