On the beachfront and at the very top of the building, this welcoming one-bedroom apartment awaits, a home where light and the sea set the tone from the very first moment. Here, the Atlantic is more than just a view. It is a constant presence, giving the property that truly special feeling of being genuinely close to the sea. The elevated position enhances the experience, allowing the light to pour in and create a bright and pleasant atmosphere. The apartment has been well maintained, is in good condition and is sold furnished. Most of the appliances date from 2022/23, the electrical system has been updated and the awning has an electric motor, practical improvements that contribute to comfortable, easy-maintenance living.
