A property where every last detail has been carefully considered, featuring an original tropical-inspired design in which the vegetation and green tones create a fresh, harmonious atmosphere with plenty of personality. The terrace is one of its main attractions and is currently divided into two areas. An open area invites you to enjoy the sunshine and set out comfortable sun loungers, while a second, more private space protected by a pergola offers the perfect place to relax on the sofa or enjoy pleasant meals outdoors. The vegetation also benefits from an automatic irrigation system, making it easier to maintain. Special attention has been paid to design and functionality throughout the interior.
